

Hello ladies,

It seemed a real strange Wednesday not meeting up with you all after the game and definitely an anti climax from the excitement of Captain's Day – I hope that you enjoyed your game. The weather was certainly warm.

Championship Day is next week and whether you are playing 36 holes or 18 you are invited to stay for a meal. The meal list is up on the board. If you don't feel that you can manage to play 36 holes, please put your name up for the 18 hole competition.

Good News – Our A team ladies played an away match at Elsham (B Team) and had a resounding win 3-1, brilliant play and our B team ladies played a home match against Seacroft and the result ended a draw 2-2 after a hard fought match that went to the 18th hole. Congratulations to both teams.

There is a friendly match against Gainsborough at home next Tuesday 23rd July and I am looking for another two ladies to play - PLEASE I will catch up with some of you on Friday morning.

The Ladies match against the Senior Men is on Friday morning and the draw is up on the board. We will be going off both tees at 9am. Please come a little earlier to meet your playing partners. It is a Betterball competition playing off the men's card stroke index. (Plus 3 shots for us).

There were a few unclaimed raffle prizes from My Captain's Day. The numbers are as follows: yellow 486 and 598; pink 528 and 536; white 469 and blue 540. Please look at your tickets and let me know if you are a lucky winner.

I know that I have been asking for lots of cakes and I am really, really thankful for your support but if any of you would bake again for the Invitation Day half-way house on 31st July. I would be most grateful: I will put up a list in anticipation of your kindness.

Thank you all again for your generosity, gifts, flowers and cards bestowed on me on my Captain's Day – it fare welled me up.

Results of the EGM have come through on the How Did I Do and are listed below. I know very well how I did – Struggled - so much for a relaxing competition (my words from last week).

1st Jan Williams – Nett 67 – well done with a handicap drop to 25

2nd Linda Rhoades – Nett 71 – well done with a handicap drop to 35

3rd Gill Blakey – Nett 71

Exchange Day to Hessle – cost £13. If you are going on this exchange please pay as soon as possible. Cheque or cash into the competition slot with your name and Exchange Day marked clearly on the front. Thank you.
